RICHMONT
GRADUATE UNIVERSITY™

Gary W. Moon, Ph.D.

Gary W. Moon, M.Div. Ph.D. served as the founding Executive Director of the Martin Institute for Christianity and Culture and the Dallas Willard Center for Christian Spiritual Formation at Westmont College and continues to direct their resource development initiatives through serving as the director of Conversatio Divina: A Center for Spiritual Formation.

He also serves as a consultant and spiritual director for the Wings Center at Eagle Ranch, and as Distinguished Professor of Psychology and Spiritual Formation at Richmond Graduate University, and as the director of the DMIN program in spiritual direction at Fuller Theological Seminary.

Preston Hill, Ph.D.

Dr. Hill serves as Associate Professor of Integrative Theology at Richmond. In 2021 he completed a Ph.D. in Theology at St Mary's College, University of St Andrews, having previously completed an MLitt degree in Analytic and Exegetical Theology from the Logos Institute at St Andrews. He has released his first coauthored book with Scott Harrower and Joshua Cockayne entitled Dawn of Sunday: The Trinity and Trauma-Safe Church (Cascade), and is releasing his first edited volume entitled Christ and Trauma: Theology East of Eden (Pickwick Publications). Dr. Hill is also in the process of supervision for licensure as a pastoral therapist in Tennessee.

Andrew Schmutzer, Ph.D.

Andrew is Professor of Biblical Studies at Moody Bible Institute and has been teaching full-time since 1998. Prior to teaching at Moody, Andrew served as a pastor of a 2nd generation Korean Church. His teaching focuses on Old Testament Bible (Genesis, Pentateuch, Minor Prophets, Psalms), Biblical Theology (1 Samuel, OT Theology, Theology of Suffering, Theology of Sexuality), and Hebrew Language (grammar, exegesis, and Hebrew reading courses). He has taught more than 30 different courses. In addition, he has served as faculty sponsor for student groups, including the Student Theological Society and the MK Fellowship. Andrew regularly speaks in Chicago-land churches. He has also served as an adjunct teacher at Wheaton College and Northern Theological Seminary.

Amy Peeler, Ph.D.

Amy Peeler is Associate Professor of New Testament at Wheaton College and Associate Rector at St. Mark's Episcopal Church in Geneva, IL. Her primary areas of research are the Epistle to the Hebrews (You are My Son: The Family of God in the Epistle to the Hebrews, T&T Clark, 2014; With Patrick Gray, Hebrews: An Introduction and Study Guide, T&T Clark, 2020) and a theological interpretation of gender (Women and the Gender of God, Eerdmans, 2022). Mother of three, she is blessed to see the three vocations to which she has been called: professor, pastor, and parent mutually inform one another.
